ON THE COVER: The Cardinals offense rolled in 1975 with new team records set in total yards and first downs. Quarterback Jim Hart was protected by an offensive line which tied a NFL record for fewest QB sacks (8) in a season. The line escorted two Big Red rushers to records — Jim Otis to a team record 1,076 yards and the NFC championship and Terry Metcalf to a NFL mark of 2,462 combined net yards. # WILLIAM V. BIDWILL

Managing General Partner

William V. Bidwill, managing general partner of the Football Cardinals, has spent his entire life with the Big Red — the last four years as the team's chief executive.

In those four years, the Cardinals have jumped from losing records to successive NFC Eastern Division championships under the direction of head coach Don Coryell and director of operations Joe Sullivan, both picked by Bidwill to direct the football end of the organization.

A son of former Big Red president and owner, the late Charles W. Bidwill, Sr., a member of Pro Football's Hall of Fame, Bill was honored by the Big Brothers of St. Louis as its honorary Big Brother of 1976. He is a past chairman of the St. Louis Salvation Army's "Tree of Lights" Christmas program.

The 45-year-old Bidwill, a graduate of Georgetown University and a veteran of Navy service, lives in Clayton, a St. Louis suburb, with his wife Nancy and their four sons and one daughter.

JOE SULLIVAN

Director of Operations

Joe Sullivan, whose personnel moves have been major contributions in the NFC Eastern Division championships won by the Cardinals in 1974-75, begins his fourth season as the team's director of operations and his 20th year of association with the National Football League.

Sullivan's endless list of duties specifically involves trades, supervision of the Cardinals' college and professional scouting, contract signings and personnel relations.

Sullivan, 52, came to the Big Red from Washington, where he had served as assistant general manager and assistant coach in 1971-72. He began his NFL affiliation with the Green Bay Packers' personnel department during the 1957 draft. In 1959, he joined the Chicago Bears in a similar capacity.

He spent seven seasons with the Bears before going to Los Angeles in 1966 as special assignments coach under George Allen, and then followed Allen to Washington in 1971. A native of Milwaukee and a veteran of the Marine Corps, Sullivan and his wife Joan live in Clayton, a suburb of St. Louis.

DON CORYELL, HEAD COACH

There are still some disbelievers of the Don Coryell story with the Football Cardinals — even after his second successive NFC Eastern Division championship season. Certainly not in Coryell's ability to win, but in how quickly he has turned the Big Red around.

In his second season as head coach in 1974, Coryell took a team that had posted three straight 4-9-1 records and finished atop the NFC East at 10-4. In the process, he won consensus NFL coach of the year honors.

There were no such accolades last year, but the results were even better, an 11-3 record — the best ever by a Cardinal team in St. Louis — and the second straight division title, accomplished previously only by Dallas in 1970-71.

The on-the-field achievements of the Big Red under Coryell in 1974-75 have been obvious: a 21-7 overall record (Dallas and Washington have gone 18-10 over the same period), a 13-3 record against the NFC East, and a long list of team and individual records, post-season honors and Pro Bowl appearances.

But there also have been some fascinating intangibles. One has been in injuries. While player injuries have climbed from 240 in 1973 to 343 in 1975, the number of practice days lost actually has been reduced in half. Another has been the emergence of the "Cardiac Cards," a team that has developed an uncanny ability to win the close games.

Can both trends be tied to the magic of Don Coryell? Big Red players and fans think so. To columnist Rich Koster, writing in the St. Louis Globe-Democrat: "Coryell is the catalyst, the trigger, the motivator. He is the leader. The source of confidence."

He continues: "To understand the Cardinals, you must understand the man, Coryell. He knows only one way: all out. A football game lasts 60 minutes. He expects his team to play every second. Anyone who doesn't is gone. You play Coryell football . . . or you don't play in St. Louis."

As the Cardinals move into 1976, Coryell has a goal. "It is to some way make it into the playoffs again," he says, referring to first-round playoff losses to Minnesota and Los Angeles the last two seasons. "To do that, we have to improve our defense, but I think we have moved in that direction with our trades and draft.

"We have won our division the last two years by being able to win the close games and coming up with maximum effort on every play. We have to continue to do this because our division is strong now and will be even better this year. It's going to be a very competitive season for us."

The 51-year-old Coryell was handed the Cardinal reins on January 18, 1973, after an outstanding 15-year college head coaching career in which he won more than 83 per cent of his games and never experienced a losing season. The last 12 years were at San Diego State, where Coryell's teams, using a pro-style attack that stressed the passing game, posted an amazing 104-19-2 record (84%).

Before Coryell's emergence at San Diego State, he had left his mark at Whittier College, where in 1957 he succeeded Washington Redskin coach George Allen. In three years, Coryell posted a 23-5-1 record and three conference championships. His 1959 team led the nation's college division teams in total offense and passing.

After a year as backfield coach at Southern Cal in 1960, Coryell landed the head coaching job at San Diego State and inherited a team that had won only two games in the two previous seasons combined. Things quickly changed. Coryell posted a 7-2-1 record his first year — that would be the Aztecs' second poorest mark in his 12 seasons.

At San Diego, Coryell had three unbeaten seasons — 11-0 in 1966, 9-0-1 in 1968 and 11-0 in 1969. His teams won 25 consecutive games during a period from 1965-67, and after that streak ended, Coryell coached the Aztecs 31 games in a row without a defeat.

He was named NCAA District College Division Coach of the Year four times (1963-66-67-68), and San Diego State was selected the nation's top college division team by both wire services in 1966-67, and first by UPI in 1968. The Aztecs were promoted to university division status in 1969 and when Coryell left four seasons later, the school had laid claim to 18 individual and team NCAA offense records.

Born in Seattle, Wash., on Oct. 17, 1924, Coryell graduated from high school there in 1943, then spent the next three years in the U.S. Army, receiving an honorable discharge as a first lieutenant after paratrooper duty in Japan. He attended the University of Washington, graduating with a B.A. degree in 1950 and a M.A. degree a year later.

His first coaching stops were as an assistant at Punahou Academy in Honolulu in 1951, head coach at Farrington High School in Honolulu in 1952, and head coach at the University of British Columbia in 1953-54.

In 1955, Coryell moved to Wenatchee (Wash.) Junior College and turned a team which had not won a game the season before into undefeated state champions. A year later, he was athletic director and football coach at Ford Ord, Calif., and recorded another unbeaten season. From there, it was on to Whittier and the start of the success story.

Coryell is married to the former Aliisa Gronroos, and they live in suburban St. Louis with their two children: Mike, 19, and Mindy, 15.

ASSISTANT COACHES

RAY WILLSEY, Defensive Coordinator

The head coach for the Cardinal defense is Ray Willsey, 46, who begins his fourth season as defensive coordinator after previously serving as a Big Red assistant for the team's first two years in St. Louis (1960-61). Two years ago as the Cardinals won their first division title, the Big Red defense allowed only 218 points — lowest total in the team's 16 St. Louis seasons. Although the points increased last year, the defense nevertheless contributed, not allowing a rushing touchdown during the team's six-game, midseason winning streak and not permitting a first-half TD in four of the last five games.

A quarterback-defensive back at California in 1951-52, Willsey played in more minutes as a senior than any other Golden Bear. In 1953, he played with Edmonton of the Canadian Football League under coach Darrell Royal. He was an assistant at Cal in 1954-55 and rejoined Royal at Washington (1956) and Texas (1957-59). After leaving the Big Red in 1961, he was an assistant with the Washington Redskins (1962-63) and head coach at Cal (1964-71) before rejoining the Cardinals. A native of Regina, Saskatchewan, Ray and his wife Barbara are the parents of three daughters.

JOE GIBBS, Offensive Backs

Joe Gibbs, 35, both a player and coach for Don Coryell at San Diego State, begins his fourth season in charge of the Big Red's running backs. Gibbs, who coached nine years in college before joining the Cardinals, played as an offensive lineman, tight end and linebacker at San Diego State in 1961-63. He was a graduate assistant there in 1964-65 and became offensive line coach in 1966 — with the Aztecs going 11-0.

His other college stops included offensive line positions at Florida State (1967-68), Southern California (1969-70) and Arkansas (1971-72). At Florida State, where he was offensive coordinator in 1968, both Seminole squads made bowl appearances. The 1969 Trojans finished as undefeated Rose Bowl champions. Born in Mocksville, N.C., Gibbs and his wife Pat are the parents of two sons.

HARRY GILMER, Quarterbacks and Receivers

Harry Gilmer, an outstanding college and NFL performer, begins his 20th NFL coaching season and the second year of his second tour of duty with the Cardinals. Gilmer was the Big Red's quarterback coach from 1967-69, before coaching with the Atlanta Falcons from 1970-74. Other NFL stops were at Pittsburgh (1957-60), Minnesota (1961-64) and head coach at Detroit (1965-66).

A legendary quarterback at Alabama, Gilmer, 50, was the NFL's No. 1 draft choice by Washington in 1948. The versatile performer was with the Redskins until 1954 as a quarterback, running back and defensive back — twice gaining all-pro honors — and played at Detroit in 1955-56. A native of Birmingham, Ala., Gilmer and his wife Katherine have a son, three married daughters and three grandchildren.

JIM HANIFAN, Offensive Line

Jim Hanifan, 42, begins his fourth season with the Big Red's offensive line, which last year, in leading the NFL in fewest quarterback sacks for the second straight season, tied a league record for fewest sacks in a season (8). He served in a similar capacity for Don Coryell at San Diego State in 1972 and had been passing-game coach at California in 1970-71.

Hanifan starred for Cal as an end from 1952-54, leading the nation in receiving as a senior and earning all-coast honors. He was with Toronto of the Canadian Football League in 1955 and played service ball under Coryell in 1956. Other college coaching stops were at Yuba (Calif.) Juco (1959), Glendale (Calif.) Juco (1964-65) and offensive coach at Utah (1966-69). A native of Compton, Calif., he and his wife Mariana are the parents of a son and daughter.

CHUCK WEBER, Defensive Backs

A former standout National Football League linebacker and an experienced defensive coach, Chuck Weber is a new addition to the Big Red defensive staff. Weber, 46, came to the Cardinals from Cincinnati where he had been the Bengals' defensive coordinator and backfield coach under Paul Brown since 1970. He also has been an assistant with the Boston Patriots (1964-67) and the San Diego Chargers (1968-69).

Born in Philadelphia, Weber is a graduate of West Chester (Pa.) State College, where he has a Little All-America selection. He was a linebacker under Brown with the Cleveland Browns in 1955-56, was a defensive captain with the Chicago Cardinals (1956-58) and also played with the Philadelphia Eagles (1959-61). Two of the teams — the 1955 Browns and the 1960 Eagles — won NFL championships. Weber and his wife Ginnie are the parents of four sons and a daughter.

WILLIE ZAPALAC, Defensive Line

The second new member of the Big Red coaching staff is Willie Zapalac, long-time and highly-respected assistant coach from the Southwest Conference, who will handle the defensive line. For the past 12 seasons, Zapalac had coached under Darrell Royal at the University of Texas, serving early as a defensive coach and recently as offensive coordinator and line coach. Other college coaching stints were at Oklahoma State (1963), Texas Tech (1961-62) and Texas A&M (1953-60).

A native of Sealy, Tex., Zapalac, 53, scored a record 265 points as a senior fullback at Bellville (Tex.) High School in 1938. He played fullback at Texas A&M before and after military duty in World War II (1941-42, 46), and played in two East-West Shrine and two College all-star games. Zapalac and his wife Dorothy have two sons and a daughter. Both sons played football at Texas — Bill on the Longhorns' national championship teams in 1969-70 and Jeff in 1971.

JIM CURZI, Strength

A major factor in the decrease in Football Cardinal injuries in each of the team's two NFC Eastern Division championship seasons can be attributed to the efforts of Jim Curzi, who is now working full-time as the Big Red's strength and flexibility coach.

A native of Butler, Pa., Curzi, 32, was a four-year gymnastics letterman at Michigan State University, where he won five Big 10 Conference gymnastics titles, three NCAA championships and was named the 1966 recipient of the Nissen Award, equivalent to football's Heisman Trophy. He has bachelor's and master's degrees from MSU, and currently runs "The Stretch-Jim," a conditioning and flexibility center in St. Louis.

PERSONNEL DEPARTMENT

GEORGE BOONE, Personnel Director

George Boone, in his fourth year as the Big Red's personnel director, is well qualified to lead the team's college scouting operation. Boone, 37, began his NFL work in 1966 as a scout for the Central-Eastern Professional Organization (CEPO), a scouting combine for seven league teams, including the Cardinals. He came to the Big Red in 1968 as assistant personnel director, a post he held for five seasons. He was promoted to his present position in March, 1973.

Born in Louisville, Ky., Boone was a three-year starter at offensive and defensive tackle at Kentucky from 1957-59 and was an assistant coach with the Wildcats from 1960-65. While at Kentucky, Boone received both a bachelor's and master's degree in education. He and his wife Dedee are the parents of four daughters and a son.

STAN WEST, Personnel Scout

Stan West, with the longest tenure of the Big Red's personnel scouts, begins his 12th season as a full-time scout. A former all-America lineman at the University of Oklahoma, the 50-year-old West also starred for eight years in the NFL.

West gained his all-America honors with the Sooners in 1949 and was a first-round draft choice by Los Angeles in 1950. He started at linebacker for five years for the Rams and also played for the New York Giants (1955) and the Chicago Cardinals (1956-57). He was an assistant coach with the Minnesota Vikings from 1961-63, stayed out of football for a year, and joined the Cardinals in 1965. West lives in Norman, Okla., with his wife Mary Frances and their two sons.

BO BOLINGER, Personnel Scout

An all-American at Oklahoma like his fellow scout Stan West, Bo Bolinger begins his sixth season as a full-time scout on the Cardinal staff. Bolinger, a small but sturdy guard, received his all-America honors in 1955 and was also a two-time all-conference selection with the Sooners.

Bolinger, 43, came to the Cardinals before the start of the 1971 season after serving as an assistant coach from 1969-70 with Calgary in the Canadian Football League. Before going to Calgary, Bolinger had coached at Utah State, New Mexico, Tulsa and Denver. He and his wife Barbara are the parents of three daughters and live in Tempe, Ariz.

MATT LAIR, Personnel Scout

With more than 26 years of football coaching and scouting experience, Matt Lair begins his third season as a full-time personnel scout with the Big Red. Lair, 51, came to the Cardinals after working for six years with the Central-Eastern Professional Organization (CEPO), a scouting combine for seven NFL teams including the Cardinals.

Born in Paris, Ky., Lair played at the University of Kentucky from 1941-42 and 1946-47. He was a high school coach in Kentucky and Alabama for five years and then spent the next 15 years in assistant roles at Kentucky, Texas A&M and Texas Tech. He joined CEPO in 1968. Lair and his wife Helen live in Tupelo, Miss.

LARRY WILSON, Pro Scouting Director

Larry Wilson, the most popular player ever to play professional football in St. Louis, begins his fourth off-the-field season as director of pro scouting — an increasingly important and multi-faceted job with emphasis on Cardinal and other NFL personnel transactions. Wilson, 38, was named to the newly-created post at the end of the 1972 season — following 13 years as a premier NFL safety.

The legendary No. 8 was a seventh-round draft choice from Utah in 1960, switched from running back to defense and immediately became a starter — making famous the safety blitz devised by the late assistant coach Chuck Drulis. From there, he proceeded to lay claim to ten all-time Big Red records, including almost every interception mark. He made eight Pro Bowl trips, led the NFL in interceptions in 1966 with ten and tied a league mark that year for interceptions in seven straight games. Born in Rigby, Ida., Larry and his wife Dee Ann are the parents of two sons and a daughter.

TRAINING, EQUIPMENT

JOHN OMOHUNDRO, Trainer

The increasingly important job of caring for the health of the Football Cardinal players again will be handled by hard-working and dedicated John Omohundro, who begins his sixth season as head trainer. Previously, "Johnny O." had served four seasons as assistant trainer.

A native of Salt Lake City, the 33-year-old Omohundro earned a bachelor's degree in physical education at the University of Wyoming. He worked there as an assistant trainer and was head trainer at the College of Southern Utah before coming to the Big Red in 1967. Omohundro and his wife Martha are the parents of a son.

JIM SHEARER, Assistant Trainer

Jim Shearer, who also received his training experience at the University of Wyoming, begins his third year as the Big Red's assistant trainer. Shearer, 26, received his bachelor's degree from Wyoming in 1972 and later returned for graduate work in 1973-74.

The native of Worland, Wyo., spent the 1972-73 school year in Gillette, Wyo., where he served as the town's assistant recreation director and worked with the local high school's athletic program. He served as graduate assistant trainer at Wyoming in 1973. Shearer and his wife Nelma live in St. Louis.

BILL SIMMONS, Equipment Manager

The task of assembling and caring for the Big Red's vast equipment resources falls for the 11th straight season into the capable hands of Bill Simmons. Prior to joining the Cardinals in 1966, Simmons had been a teacher at Ferguson Junior High School.

Born in Kansas City, Simmons, 52, earned bachelor's and master's degrees from Northwest Missouri State University around tours of military duty in World War II and the Korean War. He and his wife Katie have five children and three grandchildren. Eldest son Dan is in his fourth year as equipment manager for the New Orleans Saints.

1976 NFL RULES CHANGES

1. The official coin toss has been moved to three minutes before kickoff with the referee and team captains present. The toss will be live on the referee's microphone so that fans in the stadium may hear the dialogue. (Toss previously was 30 minutes before kickoff.)

2. Two 30-second clocks will be placed, one in each end zone, so fans can see how long it takes offense to put the ball in play. The clocks are four feet high, six feet wide, with numbers three feet high, and will be the official timing device for putting the ball in play, backed up by the field judge's watch in case of malfunction.

3. All games must be played to conclusion because of effect early termination might have on tie-breaking procedures used to determine playoff participants and sites.

4. Offensive team has been given the option to accept the yardage on a foul by the defense on an aborted or unsuccessful kick try either on the subsequent try or on the ensuing kickoff, thus eliminating the potential of a "cheap shot" by the defense. On successful tries, yardage on fouls by the defense will be assessed on the ensuing kickoff.

5. Defensive players are prohibited from using hands or hands of a teammate to gain extra leverage in an attempt to block a kick. This broadens rule already prohibiting defense from "stacking" or lifting players to block a kick.

6. Individual punting statistics will now include net average (subtracting 20 yards on each kick which results in touchback) in addition to gross average. Statistics also will include how many punts are downed or go out-of-bounds inside 20 yard-line and average yardage of punts returned.

HOW THE CARDINALS WERE BUILT

At the end of the 1975 season, there were 46 players active or on reserve with the Cardinals. This is how they were acquired.

Game 1 — Cardinals 23, Falcons 20

September 21 at St. Louis (42,172) — Cardinals needed 10 points in final four minutes for season-opening victory—with Jim Bakken kicking 25-yard field goal on last play of game. Behind rookie QB Steve Bartkowski, Falcons led 20-13 in fourth quarter until Jim Hart threw 8-yard TD pass to Earl Thomas for 20-20 tie with 3:59 left. Big Red regained ball on own 20-yard-line with 1:49 to play and Hart moved team to winning field goal—hitting Mel Gray on 29 and 22-yard passes. Terry Metcalf rushed for 99 yards—including a 39-yard TD. Dave Hampton rushed for 135 for Falcons.

Game 2 — Cardinals 31, Cowboys 37

September 28 at Dallas (52,417) — First overtime game in Cardinal history had disappointing ending. Big Red trailed, 31-17, in fourth quarter but tied game and forced overtime on two TD passes by Jim Hart. Second was 37-yarder to Mel Gray with 46 seconds left. Dallas drove but missed field goal with three seconds left in regulation time. Cardinals won overtime coin toss, drove to Dallas 26, but Lee Roy Jordan intercepted pass and returned it 38 yards. Cowboys then went in for winning score. Wild third period featured 35 points and back-to-back TDs—an 80-yard pass from Hart to Earl Thomas and then a 97-yard kickoff return by the Cowboys' Thomas Henderson. Hart finished with 15 completions in 32 attempts for 314 yards, 292 coming in second half, and four TDs, while Dallas' Roger Staubach was 23 of 34 for 307 yards and three TDs. Gray had five catches for 114 yards and two TDs.

Game 3 — Cardinals 26, Giants 14

October 5 at St. Louis (44,919) — Terry Metcalf and Jim Otis ran for 109 and 101 yards respectively to mark the first time in Cardinal history that two running backs broke the 100-yard barrier in the same game. Big Red finished with 254 rushing yards, seventh-highest one-game total as St. Louis team. Cardinal defense blanked Giants and Big Red stormed to 23-0 halftime lead. Big Red sacked Giant QB Craig Morton four times. For Metcalf, it was third 100-yard game of his career, for Otis his first.

Game 4 — Cardinals 17, Redskins 27

October 13 at Washington (54,693) — Cardinal record fell to 2-2 as Redskins forced Big Red into five turnovers in hard-fought Monday night game. Cardinals came from behind three times to gain ties—on 48-yard field goal by Jim Bakken, running his streak to seven straight for season, a 93-yard kickoff return by Terry Metcalf to open the second half and a 48-yard pass from Jim Hart to Mel Gray. Redskins broke open fourth quarter deadlock with 10 points and then stopped two Cardinal drives with interceptions. Washington had 158-68 rushing edge with rookie Mike Thomas gaining 100.

Game 5 — Cardinals 31, Eagles 20

October 19 at St. Louis (45,242) — Cardinals started slowly, but then finished strongly, running for St. Louis era record of 278 yards against Eagles. Jim Otis ran for 116 and two TDs, Terry Metcalf added 81 and Steve Jones 64. Jim Hart could complete only nine of 20 passes for 125 yards with two interceptions but connected with Jackie Smith for a 30-yard score and 14-10 lead with 55 seconds left in first half. Big Red jumped to 24-10 lead in third quarter but Eagles closed to 24-20 with 3:25 left. Cardinal defense held Eagles to 102 rushing yards and Roman Gabriel completed 16 of 40 passes.

Game 6 — Cardinals 20, Giants 13

October 25 at New York (49,598) — Mel Gray caught seven passes for 187 yards and two TDs as Cardinals swept Giants for second straight year. Big Red held Giants scoreless until fourth quarter but New York rally narrowed lead to 20-13 with 2:03 left. Giants blocked Big Red punt but final drive was stopped by Norm Thompson's interception at Cardinal 11-yard line. It was Big Red's third pass theft. Gray caught an early 51-yard TD pass from Terry Metcalf on the halfback option and a 38-yarder from Jim Hart in the fourth quarter. Cardinals held Giants to 82 rushing yards. Jim Bakken booted two field goals to boost his season streak to 10 straight.

Game 7 – Cardinals 24, Patriots 17

November 2 at St. Louis (45,907) – Big Red returned eight punts for 152 yards, highest total in St. Louis history, to capture rough-and-tumble contest. Only Cardinal offense in first half was generated by Terry Metcalf's 69-yard punt return TD. Patriots held 10-7 halftime lead and jumped to 17-7 in third quarter when lineman Ray Hamilton ran 23 yards with a Jim Hart fumble. Cardinals gained 17-17 tie early in fourth quarter, and set up by 27-yard punt return by Mel Gray, scored game-winning TD with 6:15 left on Metcalf's 7-yard run, his third TD of game. Patriots threatened at finish but linebacker Pete Barnes intercepted pass on Big Red 10-yard-line with 15 second left. Coupled with Washington's overtime win over Dallas, Cardinals, Redskins and Cowboys were tied for NFC East lead with 5-2 records.

Game 9 – Cardinals 20, Redskins 17

November 16 at St. Louis (49,919) – Extending their last-minute heroics to the limit, Cardinals captured dramatic overtime battle and undisputed possession of NFC East lead. Redskins led 14-3 after three periods and 17-10 with 1:43 to play when Big Red took possession on Redskin 39 after 19-yard punt return by Terry Metcalf. On fourth down from six-yard line with 25 seconds left, Cardinals tied game on disputed TD—when Jim Hart passed into end zone to Mel Gray, who caught ball and then dropped it when hit by Pat Fischer. After conference, officials ruled Gray had possession for TD. Big Red won overtime coin toss and drove 55 yards to set up Bakken's third game-winning field goal of season. Cardinals had St. Louis record 31 first downs and 427 yards in total offense—with Jim Otis running for 109, Hart passing for 215 and Gray catching seven passes for 109.

Game 11 — Cardinals 14, Bills 32

November 27 at St. Louis (41,899) — Cardinals' six-game winning streak came to a sudden stop as seven turnovers contributed to decisive defeat in first Thanksgiving home game in St. Louis history. Big Red fumbled six times, losing three, and Jim Hart was intercepted four times. Buffalo outrushed St. Louis, 264-54—with Jim Braxton gaining 160 and O. J. Simpson 85—to forge a 32-7 lead. Terry Metcalf, though rushing for only seven yards, had a St. Louis record 280 combined net yards, including 174 in kickoff returns, fourth highest one-game total in team history. Norm Thompson intercepted two passes. Loss dropped Big Red into tie for NFC East lead with Dallas.

Game 12 — Cardinals 31, Cowboys 17

December 7 at St. Louis (49,701) — Cardinals scored touchdowns on first three possessions and four of five in first half for impressive victory and NFC East lead. Terry Metcalf accounted for all 65 yards in first drive—the first 35 rushing and the last 30 on a pass from Jim Hart. After a Dallas field goal, the Big Red struck again three plays later on a 49-yard TD pass from Hart to Mel Gray. After Dallas punt, Cardinals took 10:01 to move 65 yards with Steve Jones scoring from one. Hart's six-yard pass to Gray gave Big Red 28-3 halftime lead. Roger Wehrli intercepted three Roger Staubach passes, including two in fourth quarter which stopped Dallas drives. Hart completed 11 of 17 passes for 199 yards and three TDs, while Staubach was 25 of 41 for 268 yards. Rookie Ike Harris caught four passes for 71 yards. Metcalf ran for 86 and Jim Otis for 83.

NFC Division Playoffs — Cardinals 23, Rams 35

December 27 at Los Angeles (72,650) — Rams used big plays for early lead which proved insurmountable to Big Red. Los Angeles scored on opening possession then boosted lead to 14-0 on Cardinals' second offensive play when defensive end Jack Youngblood intercepted Jim Hart pass and returned it 47 yards. Two possessions later, safety Bill Simpson went 66 yards with another interception for 21-0 margin. After Cardinals finally scored, Rams came back on first play for 66-yard TD pass from Ron Jaworski to Harold Jackson. Rams outrushed Big Red, 237-95, with Lawrence McCutcheon gaining 202 on 37 carries. Terry Metcalf had 229 combined net yards.

1976 POST-SEASON GAME PRIORITY

On the weekend of December 18-19, the NFC and AFC divisional playoff game matchups will be as follows: The two division winners with the best regular season won-lost percentage will be the home teams. The division winner with the best percentage will be host to the wild card team and the division winner with the second best percentage will be host to the third division winner.

If the wild card team is from the same division as the winner with the best percentage, the division winner with the best percentage will be host to the third division winner and the second highest division winner will be host to the wild card team.

For the NFC and AFC conference championships on December 26, the surviving division winners with the best regular season won-lost percentages will be the home teams.

FORMULA TO BREAK STANDINGS TIES FOR POSTSEASON PLAYOFFS

To break a tie within a division, these steps will be taken, in order: (1) Best won-lost percentage in head-to-head competition; (2) Best won-lost percentage in games within division; (3) Best won-lost percentage in games within conference; (4) Best point differential in head-to-head competition; (5) Best point differential applied to division games; (6) Best point differential applied to 14-game schedule; (7) Coin flip.

In selecting the wild card team, if there are two or more teams tied with the leading won-lost percentage, these steps will be taken: If there are more than two teams tied and two are from the same division, the division tie first will be broken. The surviving ties would then be broken under the following conference tie-breakers.

To break a tie within a conference, these steps will be taken, in order: (1) Best percentage in head-to-head competition. This is applicable in a three-way tie only if one club beat both others or one club lost to both others; (2) Best won-lost percentage in games within conference; (3) Best point differential in head-to-head competition; (4) Best point differential applied to conference games; (5) Best point differential applied to 14-game schedule; (6) Coin flip.
